

Fundraising, Grant Writing & Governance Training for Community Groups

Information Sheet

08 May 2019

Fundraising, Sponsorship & Grants

The Queensland Fitness, Sport & Recreation (QFSR) Skills Alliance is the peak body for workforce development of the fitness, sport and recreation industry in Queensland. Many sport and recreation facilities and clubs are run by community groups and committees, so QFSR Skills Alliance provides accessible, low cost training for committee members via their e-learning portal.

Courses available via the QFSR Skills Alliance e-learning portal include Financial Management, Committee Management, Law and Insurance, Strategic Planning, marketing and Promotion,

Volunteer Management, Risk Management and Fundraising Sponsorship and grants. The Fundraising Sponsorship and Grants course overview is as follows:

“This training will help you develop the basic skills, knowledge and key processes necessary to establish, implement and manage a successful fundraising program. A planned and systematic approach to all fundraising activities is essential in today’s competitive environment.”

For further information or to enrol in one of these low cost courses, go to the QFSR Skills Alliance e-learning portal and register online.

Grant Writing

Well known grant writer and Managing Director of Indigo Gold, Prue Saxby, has developed a webinar series to help individuals and organisations develop their grant writing skills and systems.

The webinar series covers

- How to write a grant that gives you a good chance of success!
- The differences between the various granters and what they are wanting
- The various attachments that will be required
- A clear strategy on how to go through the grant writing process
- How to set yourself up for a stress free and efficient grant writing process
- What to do to be ready when grant opportunities arise
- What you need to do to make it stand out from other competing grant applications
- How your grant strategy should fit into your organisation's strategic plan and goals
- Tips and content ideas
- 5 templates to keep you organised and save you time
- Practical examples that will provide ideas for your own applications
- The finishing touches: proofing, acquittal and follow-up
- And MUCH more.

The program has 5 manageable segments so that you can watch it at a time and location that suits you. For further information and to enrol in the webinar series, visit the Indigo Gold website.

Not for Profit Governance and Grant Writing

The Our Community Group provides advice, connections, training and easy-to-use tech tools for people and organisations working to build stronger communities

They have a substantial Training Resources Bank which includes help sheets, 'how to' guides, other resources and information about a range of training sessions that can be delivered for the following topic areas:

- Grants & Fundraising
- Board, Governance & Leadership
- Finance, Insurance & Risk Management
- People Management
- Strategic Planning, Review & Revitalisation
- Information technology
- Community Engagement & Advocacy
- Marketing & Media

Our Community Group also provide the Certificate IV in Business \(Governance\) widely respected, nationally recognised governance qualification for those working on or with the governing structures of Australian community organisations. The program has been developed by Our Community specifically for not for profit and community groups.

Governance

The Queensland Council of Social Services has developed the QCOSS Community Door eTraining portal, which provides free self-paced on-line courses to support community service workers in Australia. Courses include Introduction to Governance as well as core workplace competencies such as Work within a legal and ethical framework, Respond holistically to client issues, Provide workplace coaching and mentoring, and Work with diverse people.

To access this free training, visit the QCOSS Community Door eTraining Website.

